

OREGON BACH FESTIVAL Organ Concerts

There are several outstanding organ concerts this year that are part of the Oregon Bach Festival.

Monday, July 8, 7:30 pm - Paul Jacobs performs on the Hochhalter organ at First United Methodist Church. Paul is professor of organ at Julliard in New York City. He is director of the OBF Organ Institute.

His program will include the Variations on America of Charles Ives; the Fantasia in f minor of Mozart; the Trio Sonata in G major of J. S. Bach, and the Symphony No. 6 of Louis Vierne.

Wednesday, July 10, 2 pm - Gregory Zelak performs on the Brombaugh organ at Central Lutheran Church. Greg is a graduate of Julliard, and the OBF Organ Institute. He is the principal organist of the Madison Symphony Orchestra and curator of the Overture Concert Organ Series.

Saturday, July 13, 2 pm - Eight participants of the OBF Organ Institute will present a recital of their music studied in the Masterclasses. Their performances will take place on the Hochhalter organ at First United Methodist Church in Eugene.

Tickets for the Paul Jacobs concert are available at the Hult Center Box Office. The Zelak Concert and the OBF Organ Institute concerts are FREE events. AGO members are advised to arrive early as these events tend to be standing room only.
